Terms of Reference for Trustee Board for Whinless Down Academy

Responsibilities

The Company is a charitable company limited by guarantee. It has entered into a Master Funding Agreement and a supplemental Funding Agreement in relation to the Academy both entered into with the Secretary of State (together the 'Funding Agreements').

The Directors are the charity trustees and responsible for the general control and management of the administration of the Company in accordance with the provisions set out in the Articles of the Company.

The Local Governing Body shall be a Committee of the Trustees established pursuant to articles 100-104 of the Articles of the Company.

Legal responsibility for the Academy lies with the Company. It is governed by the Directors, who rely on advice and support from the Academy's Local Governing Body, particularly (but not limited to) strategic planning and the specific matters delegated under these Terms of Reference.

Subject to provisions of these Terms of Reference, the Companies Act 2006, the Articles and to any directions given by special resolution of the Directors, the business of the Academy shall be managed by the Local Governing Body who may exercise all the powers of the Company, other than matters concerning finance, staffing and site.

The Trust Board reserve the right to remove the Local Governing Body if they are not acting in the best interests of the school.

Values for the Whinless Down Academy Trust

Learning

To improve learning experiences and outcomes for children is at the core of the MAT's work. All members aspire to improve children's lives through the highest quality education.

Transparency

The Trust is committed to transparency, ensuring school performance is shared between partners, identifying areas for development and exploring how success might be achieved through collaborative practice. The aims and objectives of the Trust are publicly shared and open to scrutiny.

Partnership

The Trust believes that school improvement can be further enhanced through collaboration with partner schools, education agencies, children and families and the wider community.

Equality and Diversity

The Trust believes that promoting equality and diversity will strengthen and enrich the partnership. The individual and unique identity of schools and members with the partnership is something to be valued and celebrated.

People

The value of children, families and staff is fundamental and the Trust works to achieve the very best outcomes for them. The Trust only recruits high quality staff and promotes professional development both within the partnership and from the very best external sources. Integrated multi-agency working, partnerships with parents and strong pupil voice are promoted across all schools.

Accountability

The Trust has established a system of self-evaluation and school improvement across the individual partner schools. There are robust structures for accountability, where individual schools need to demonstrate rigorous governance and self-evaluation to ensure effective continuous improvement. Evaluation from external sources will be considered as appropriate.

Purpose

As a charity and company limited by guarantee, Whinless Down Academy Trust (the “Company”) is governed by a board of directors (the “directors”) who are responsible for, and oversee, the management and administration of the Trust and the academies run by the Trust.

The directors are accountable to the Department for Education (DfE) and external government agencies, including the Charity Commission, for the quality of the education they provide and the effective use of the associated academy funding.

They are required to have systems in place through which they can assure themselves of quality, financial probity, safety and good practice.

The Whinless Down Academy Trust (WDAT) Board is responsible for the scrutiny of statutory decisions made at the LGB, Executive Headteacher and the Senior Leadership Teams (SLT), acting as a critical friend, to ensure the efficient and effective strategic management of the two Academies that comprise the WDAT, namely Priory Fields School and St Martin’s School.

These terms of reference explain the ways in which the board fulfils its responsibilities for the leadership and management of the Trust. They have been adopted by the board in accordance with the Trust’s Articles of Association (the Articles) and should be read in conjunction with those Articles.

Terms of Reference for the Trust Board

The Board will act as a corporate body, with integrity, objectivity and honesty, with the best interests of the Whinless Down Academy Trust at all times. The Board will work within DfE guidance, remain compliant to standards of public scrutiny, and report any irregularities to the Chief Executive Officer or Chair of Trust Board.
