

English Shape Poems:

In English, we created shape poems to do with the sounds that fireworks make. We thought of so many amazing adjectives about how we could describe the look and the sound.