

Maths adding and subtracting:

In maths we have been exploring the concept of adding and subtracting using cubes. We have had such a good time exploring the different ways we can do this and making our own subtraction and addition number sentences to work out.